

Modernist architecture sees little distinction between artwork and the built environment. Contemporary ceramicist Lubna Chowdhary continues this tradition, exploring the potential of colour and pattern to enhance our experience of urban spaces. Jo-ann Fortune spoke to Lubna to discover more about her influences and her work.

Lubna Chowdhary Enriching the everyday with ceramic

