

A Lucienne less known

Lucienne Day's fabric designs are familiar the world over. However most people will be less well acquainted with her silk mosaics, one-off commissions she created in the latter part of her career. As Andrew Casey discovered, these form a beautiful counterpoint.

Walls of Silk

Previous: Lucienne Day checking 'Aspects of the Sun' mosaic after its installation at the John Lewis Store, Kingston-upon-Thames, London, in 1990, photograph courtesy of Robin and Lucienne Day Foundation.

Below: Lucienne Day, 'Islands', 1991, photograph courtesy of the John Lewis Partnership Archive Collection.
Right: Lucienne Day 'Aspects of the Sun' silk mosaic, 1990, photograph courtesy of the John Lewis Partnership Archive Collection.

